

IKUWA3: BEYOND BOUNDARIES

The 3rd International Congress on Underwater Archaeology
University College London
7th-14th July 2008

Hosted by the Nautical Archaeology Society, the Institute of Field Archaeologists and the Institute of Archaeology, University College London, IKUWA3 will explore the theme of challenges in underwater archaeology: how underwater archaeology can be interlinked across boundaries, whether real or imagined, institutional, environmental, political, legislative or other.

Concurrent sessions will discuss:

- Research Trends and the Future
- Techniques and Scientific Methods
- Managing Underwater Cultural Heritage for the Public

Registrations open 1st November 2007
